Set in 2012 when Jihadists occupied the Malian city of Timbuktu. Malian director Sissaka exposes the cruelty and absurdity of fundamentalist regimes but with a warm touch. "This is in no way the remorselessly grim film its subject matter might lead you to expect - it's full of life, irony, poetry and bitter unfairness. It demands respect, but it also earns it." Tim Robey, film critic.

Come and join us at Wookey Hole Community Hall at the bottom of School Hill. Doors open at 7pm film starts 7.30pm. Tickets on the door £6, under 16's £3.
